Prayer for Unity Among Christians: The annual week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2025 will take place on 18-25 January. At the heart of our reflection this year is the question posed by Jesus to Martha: 'Do you believe this?' (John 11:26). The words of Jesus are spoken in love and experienced as invitation as well as challenge. Today, we continue to desire to deepen connection and belonging among Christians from all traditions and to live faithfully as disciples of Christ.

Join Our Workshop: In November 1831, John Scott Vandeleur incorporated 600 acres of farmland in Rathleheen, Newmarket on Fergus. What developed was the first native – run socialist commune anywhere in the world. Using the Ralahine Experiment, a play by Margaretta Darcy and John Arden, we aim to examine it's legacy. What happened in Rathleheen is a story of vision, resilience and shared ideals, and together we'll craft a dynamic play, blending voices and creativity to bring this inspiring historical experiment to the stage. No prior acting experience is required – just a passion for story telling and teamwork.

Saturday 18th January 2pm, in the Community Hall.
Mary Grogan and Conor Madden.
